I think allowing Wal-mart to open a bank would be giving them way too much power and an edge over all other bank competition in the USA. Don't get me wrong, I love what Wal-Mart has done for people who have a hard time making ends meet but I feel that there should be a limit on the wealth of a large corporation like Wal-Mart. I think it is time to limit Wal-Mart's power. I realize that we need merchants like Wal-Mart as part of a delicate mix between chain stores and "mom and pop" organizations, however, Wal-Mart continues to be a threat to not only small organizations but huge chain competitors.
